

Rudolph's Story

Once upon a time
A long time ago,
There was a reindeer born
Who was a little forlorn,
Because there, for everyone to see
He was born with a disability
He stood out from the others with his bright red nose
But all it gave him was trouble and woes
Then one day the lights went out
And all anyone could see was Rudolph's snout!
A big, red beacon of light
Lighting up the dark, dark night
And his disability was no longer seen
As something for them to scorn and tease
Santa chose him for his sleigh
To light up the night and lead the way
And so, with his red nose so bright
Off Rudolph flies into the night!
